

A watercolor drawing of a woman's torso and legs, titled 'Gabriella' by Róisín Cunningham. The drawing is executed in shades of brown, tan, and blue, with visible brushstrokes and a soft, ethereal quality. The woman is shown from the waist down, with her legs crossed at the ankles. Her torso is partially covered in a light blue wash, and her hair is pulled back into a ponytail. The background is a mix of light and dark blue washes.

SOUTH DUBLIN DRAWING

Drawing

at the National

Thursday 28th March 2019
at 7.00pm in the
JB ROOM

to be opened by
Annalise Murphy

Speaker Supper 8.00pm

Exhibition runs till
Sunday 31st March

Gabriella, watercolour by Róisín Cunningham